Wellington church plans youth group kickoff concert

WELLINGTON—A local church is trying to get local young people off the streets.

The Wellington United Methodist Church is sponsoring a youth group, with a kickoff concert planned for 7 p.m. Saturday, said the Rev. Scott Baird, church pastor.

"We have a lot of unchurched kids here," Baird said "There are lots of kids running the streets at all hours. We'd like to grab hold of them – that's our prayer."

The kickoff will feature Adam Wood of Hoopeston and his band Antha Zone. The group is playing free of charge for the event. "Their music is a cross between Christian contemporary and Christian rock and roll," Baird said.

The youth group is open to young people ages 11-16. "That's where we want to start," Baird said. "There seem to be several kids of that age in our area."

The ages that will be served by the group will depend on the ages of those attending. "We hope to see who's going to show the interest and then we'll become more specialized," Baird said.

After the initial meeting, the youth group will meet every Sunday beginning at 5:45. The first hour will be spent snacking and visiting, with the remainder of time divided into sections including times for sharing problems and concerns, a time to focus on coming events and fundraising, a youth choir, and time to spend Becoming His Disciples in a room specially decorated with posters, televisions and VCRs.

The Rev. Ken Dees of East Lynn will accompany the choir on guitar, and Baird hopes the choir will sing every other Sunday.

For more information on the youth group or Saturday's kickoff, call the church, (815) 984-4291.
