Police News

Rogelio Bernal, 30, address unknown, was arrested at 1:30 a.m. Friday at Parkview Court. Bernal was arrested after police received a 911 call from a 30-year-old Hoopeston woman. Police said Bernal resisted, was taken into custody and taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Richard L. Mathews, 35, of Rm. 22, Baer's Motel, turned himself in to police at 6:15 p.m. Friday. Mathews, wanted on a Vermilion County warrant for failure to appear on a city ordinance violation, was released on $85 cash bond.

A 23-year-old man reported Friday that the front truck plate is missing. The plate is 8753PA.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 10:42 p.m. Friday in the 200 block of West Main.

Police said Amanda K. Merrill, 814 S. Market, in a 1998 KIA Sephia, was westbound on Main when an unidentified vehicle forced her to the curb, then drove away.

Austin E. Dale, 21, of 203 S. Donovan, Wellington, was arrested at 1:15 a.m. Saturday at Bank and Penn.

Dale was stopped for excessive speed, and was found to be wanted on an Iroquois County warrant for failure to appear in court, police said.

He was charged with speeding, illegal transportation of alcohol and the warrant violation and was turned over to Iroquois County authorities.

A 19-year-old man reported Saturday that someone cut two passenger side tires on his vehicle while it was parked at Parkview Court.

The damage occurred between midnight and 4 a.m.

A girl's lavender bicycle was found Saturday in the 400 block of East Penn. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

Teri L. Nosler, 23, of 7539 Broadway, East Lynn, was arrested at 11:55 p.m. Saturday in the 600 block of East Seminary.

Nosler was charged with battery on a complaint from a 19-year-old Hoopeston woman who said Nosler struck her during an argument.

Nosler was released on a notice to appear.

A man's brown wallet was found Sunday in the IGA parking lot. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

Child playing with lighter causes Hoopeston house fire

A five-year-old laying with a lighter is the apparent cause of a house fire at 2:10 a.m. Friday at 516 E. Young. The home, owned by Norma Rogers, was gutted by the blaze.

Firemen were on the scene until 7:46 a.m.; the fire was investigated by Hoopeston police and the Illinois State Fire Marshall's office.

The fire is believed to have started by the child in a kitchen trash can. Other occupants in the house were sleeping when the fire broke out.

Damage to the house was estimated at $30,000.
