Book Fair beginning Friday. The book fair will be open to the public from 8 a.m.-3:30 p.m. through March 28.

The fair will feature a variety of items for children of all ages, not just books.

Proceeds will allow the school to enlarge its selection of Accelerated Reading books.

Police News

A 32-year-old Hoopeston woman reported Wednesday that someone damaged her van while it was parked at 1115 W. Orange.

Jason B. Feeney, 27, of 326 W. Washington, was arrested at 4:14 p.m. Wednesday in the 300 block of West Washington. He was charged with threatening a public official after police said he threatened the animal control officer Tuesday.

Feeney was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Two girls, and 13 and 14, were charged with battery on a complaint from a 14-year-old girl. The arrests were made at 5:55 p.m. Wednesday after an altercation in the 500 block of West Washington.

Each girl was released on a notice to appear.
