City officials list cleanup tips following Sunday's storm

As work on cleaning up after Sunday's storm progresses, city officials have made announcements concerning debris. Those affected by the storm are asked to note the following:

- Residents do not have to put storm debris at curb-side. Those who have stacked limbs and other debris in their alleys may leave it there for pickup.
- Those who have toxic waste such as old paint, are asked to call Hoopeston ESDA co-coordinator Rod Drollinger at 283-7325. He will contact the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency to set up a toxic collection site.

•The roll-off box at the city slab, used to collect debris such as shingles, siding and glass, is full and has been removed.

Residents who need to dispose of such items may call Vermilion Waste at 283-6242.

•Hoopeston ESDA needs volunteers. Those who are interested in serving in the agency may call Rod Drollinger at 283-7325, ESDA coordinator Earl Drollinger at 283-7987 or the Hoopeston Police Department, 283-5196.

to appear on a civil warrant.

Harris was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville in lieu of bond.

Two bicycles were reported taken Wednesday from the 400 block of East Honeywell. A nine-year-old reported his Huffy chrome bike had been taken while a seven-year-old reported his red and black Big Air bike was missing.

Briefly

Donations still sought

The Hoopeston Area Education Association is still collecting donations to bring speaker Philip Gulley to Hoopeston.

Gulley, author of several books, will give a presentation to the community at 6:30 p.m. Aug. 20 at the Hoopeston Methodist church fellowship hall.

The education association hopes to raise $3,500, Gulley's fee. About two thirds of that has already been collected.

Donations may be sent to the Philip Gulley Speaker

A 28-year-old woman reported Wednesday that her cell phone is missing from the 1000 block of West Chestnut/Sycamore Dr.

William R. Dilts, 40, of 841 E. Seminary, was arrested at 5:45 p.m. Wednesday in the 800 block of East Seminary. He was charged with battery on a complaint from a 39-year-old man who said Dilts hit him.

Fund at Iroquois Federal Savings.

Gulley's books are already available in Hoopeston. The Hoopeston Public Library has copies to loan and they may be purchased at Flowers and Gifts by Molly Culbert, the First Presbyterian Church and Kankakee Federal in Hoopeston and Gift Baskets by Wilma in Rossville. Books are $13 each and may be autographed by the author on Aug. 20.
