Olympic Hardware becomes member of Do It Best family

If you're going to do it, don't just do it right, Do It Best.

That could be the new motto at Olympic Hard-

That could be the new motto at Olympic Hardware, which recently became part of the Do It Best family of hardware stores.

The change began last November and is expected to be completed next month, said Jim Pajor of Olympic Hardware.

The store had previously been associated with True Value from when the doors opened in 1975 to 1990. ServiStar then began supplying hardware goods to the store until ServiStar merged with True Value in 1999.

Do It Best, formerly HWI, "has always been around," Pajor said, adding it is currently the third largest hardware supplier, behind Ace and True Value.

Pajor said the change will provide more stability for the store. According to industry publications, the privately-held True Value lost millions of dollars the past few years.

Customers should see some changes due to the new member-owned cooperative. Some Do It Best
