What would your stuff cost to replace?

You may think your things aren't worth much. But the average person has over $20,000 worth of stuff that's probably not covered by a landlord's policy. That's why you need State Farm renters insurance. State Farm insures millions of people's possessions. Which is good to know because stuff has a way of really adding up. Call today and see how affordable renters insurance can be.

Sinn, Burton named to Hoopeston Industrial Corp board

The Hoopeston Industrial Corporation two new officers at its annual and reorganizational meetings Wednesday.

Director Bruce Burton was named treasurer, replacing Don Sherrill who resigned and plans to retire and Glenn Sinn was named vice-president, replacing Ora Baer who resigned for health reasons, said corporation president Harold Cox.

Both Sherrill and Baer will be given letters of appreciation for their service to the corporation.

Cox was re-elected president and Jean Minick was again chosen as corporation secretary. Other directors include Roger Ball, Leon Polson and Jeff Stipp who was recently appointed.

Directors reviewed business before the board in 2001, including one inquiry regarding land purchase and contact with the now-bankrupt Spurgeon's Corporation regarding buying back corporation stock. Spurgeon's attorney has not contacted the corporation, Minick said.

The board also decided to meet quarterly and set the next meeting date for March 13.
