Memorial Day events

- Volunteers are needed to help place American flag grave markers at Floral Hill Cemetery for Memorial Day. Volunteers may meet at the American Legion at 8 a.m. May 23 or at Floral Hill at 8:30 a.m. All interested people are encouraged to participate.
- The public is invited to attend Memorial Day services at 10:30 a.m. Monday, May 27 at the Floral Hill Cemetery chapel.

The service will be hosted by the American Legion, VFW and AMVETS and will feature comments from representatives of each organization and the mayor. Volunteers from the Hoopeston Area High School band will perform and a joint honor guard will post colors.

The Rev. Dan Lybarger of the Methodist church will be the keynote speaker.

- The Sons of the American Legion will perform a flag burning ceremony at American Legion Post 384, at 502 E. Penn, Hoopeston. The ceremony will be held following Memorial Day services on Monday, May 27. Flag etiquette states old and worn flags should be burned.

Flags may be taken to the Legion on or before the day of the ceremony.

Vacation Bible School

The East Lynn United Methodist Church will hold vacation Bible school from 6:30-8:30 p.m. June 3-7. It is open to children ages four through eighth grade and will feature games, crafts, songs, snacks and Bible stories.

Local girl honored

Samantha Jane Johnson of Girl Scout Troop 498 of Hoopeston was honored with a Silver Award for a Girl Scout Memory Tea.

The honor is the highest one a cadette scout can earn. It is given to recognize efforts in a range of scout and community experience and a commitment to working to a better life for self and others.

Games, anyone?

County Terrace hosts area seniors for an afternoon of euchre and other games, the second and fourth Tuesday of each month.

The fun begins at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday and is open to the public.

For more information, call Charlene Ervin at 283-9215.
