Grant money to keep Teen Reach program open in July

A grant will allow the Hoopeston Multi Agency to keep the Teen Reach program open in July.
A grant for $$ 11,385.25$ was awarded to the Multi Agency by the Blowitz-Ridgeway Foundation of Northfield
Grant money will pay the salaries of Teen Reach staff to keep the program operating in July. Historically, Teen Reach has closed for the summer on June 30, said Multi Agency executive director Betty Shaffer. "We're very happy that we can keep it going because there's nothing to do in July" she said
Additional money will pay for a day of activities for program participants, Thanks to the grant, 40 teens and seven adults will take a free field trip July 24 to the

-Briefly

Book sale
The Hoopeston Area Healthcare Foundation will sponsor a book sale from 10:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Friday in the health center community room
A large selection of new books, including some of he most recent best-sellers, along with arts and crafts, gardening, recipe and children's titles, will be offered.
All books are marked up to 70 percent off. A selection of gift items will also be available.
For more information, call Ruth McFadden at (217) 283-4243.

Graduates with honors
Nichole Shoemaker of Hoopeston graduated cum laude from Lakeview College of Nursing. She was among three students awarded the academic honor.

Correction
It was incorrectly reported in the May 31 issue that

Shedd Aquarium and Field Museum in Chicago, Shaffer said. A chartered bus will leave Hoopeston at 7 a.m. and return from Chicago at approximately $9 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$.
The Multi Agency will also help two other programs with funds from the grant. Two teens will be hired to work four hours a day, five days a week, for eight weeks under the Workforce Investment Board summer youth program through the Vermilion County Youth Council
Also, funds will help pay for school supplies for underprivileged students later this summer during the agency's back-to-school program.

It's kind of an awesome thing that we got," Shaffer said.
