Hoopeston Area schools to auction computer equipment

Area residents will be able to get usable computer equipment at reasonable prices during a sealed bid auction.

Hoopeston Area School District will have a computer hardware sealed bid auction this week. Viewing and bids will be accepted from 4-8 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday at the district bus barn behind the high school.

Equipment includes out-dated district computer hardware and peripherals including printers, monitors, keyboards, mice and other add-ons.

High bidders will be called to arrange pickup and payment and may pick items up beginning at 3 p.m. Saturday.

Those who successfully purchase items but do not pick them up Saturday will be called Monday or Tuesday to arrange a pickup time.

All items will be sold as-is, with no warranties or technical support provided. No returns will be allowed and all sales will be cash only.

Each person will be limited to one bid sheet and bids will be accepted in 50 cent increments. Winning bidders must pay for and take delivery of all items for which they are high bidder.

For more information, call the superintendent's office at (217) 283-6668.

Northern Illinois University to conduct phone health survey

Beginning Tuesday and lasting at least one month, interviewers from Northern Illinois University will telephone Vermilion County households.

The Illinois Department of Public Health, in cooperation with the Vermilion County Health Department, is conducting a health behavior study of adults 18 years of age and older who live in Vermilion County.

In order to assure a random sample, the survey procedure includes a selection protocol to choose one adult in a household to be interviewed.

Those who have been selected for this survey will be provided, upon request, with a toll free number for Northern Illinois University to verify the origin of the call.

All information will remain confidential; all answers will be combined and given to the local
