Everyday heroes

Members of the Hoopeston Area class of 2004 pose as doctors, nurses, soldiers, police officers - and, of course, football players - on a float for Friday's Homecoming parade. Friday was a great day for a parade but not for football. The Cornjerkers did not fare well in their contest against Momence, losing 48-6. Hoopeston's only score came in the third quarter with a pass from quarterback Arik Bruens to Devin McMillan. McMillan was crowned Homecoming king. His queen was Chanelle Gonzalez.
