Rossville woman is opening act for country star Shelby Lynne

CHAMPAIGN—A Rossville woman is "totally stoked" about a music gig Wednesday night.

Kate Hathaway will be the opening act for Shelby Lynne, 1990 Association of Country Music's Tom New Female award and 2000 Grammy winner for Best New Artist.

"I am very stoked that I've been given the opportunity to play with her," Hathaway said. "Not only will it expose me to a lot of new people, but I will be exposed to a phenomenal musician- one of the best. It will give me the chance to talk to someone who has had over 10 years experience in the music world. It will be a great night. I'm really looking forward to it."

Lynne, who recently performed on "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno," is no stranger to the heartache behind country music. At 17, she watched her father murder her mother and then kill himself. Lynne moved to Nashville and supported her sister and herself by singing in clubs.

Her sister, Allison Moorer, recently had a Billboard Country Music hit with "Picture," performed with Kid See OPENING on other side
