Putting up Old Glory

Don Christensen, left, and Andy Braden put up new American and POW flags at BJ's Pump Tuesday. The patriotic display was a community effort with Hoopeston Plumbing and Heating donating the pole, Jud Fenner, Scott Brown and Greg Johnson putting it up and people donating money for the gold eagle that sits atop the pole. Susie Miles and Odie Milner also helped in the effort.

Concert set

The Allens, an area Christian musical group, will be in concert at 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 16 at the East Lynn United Methodist Church. A freewill offering will be taken. The public is invited.

Neighborhood Watch

Hoopeston Neighborhood Watch, normally scheduled the first Monday of each month, will meet at 6 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 13. Richard Foley, original architect for the University of Illinois Assembly Hall, will be the featured speaker. The meeting will be held at County Terrace.

Pre-diabetes screening

Hoopeston Regional Health Center will offer a free pre-diabetes screening from 8-10 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 18 in the hospital lobby. The screening will include a glucose reading and total body mass index number, critical in determining if someone is at an elevated risk for diabetes.

By knowing the numbers, people may increase the chance to avoid diabetes through exercise and diet.
