Local township officials among conference participants

SPRINGFIELD—Grant Township Supervisor Bill Boose and township trustee Richard Thompson were among some 1,500 township officials participating in the 2003 Annual Educational Conference, sponsored by Township Officials of Illinois (TOI).

The event was held Nov. 9-12 at Crowne Plaza Hotel in Springfield.

TOI annually holds its conference to help township officials keep pace with the latest developments in local government management, fiscal practices and general assistance.

Township Officials of Illinois also gives participants the opportunity to study statutory changes in Illinois local government law and provides workshops in computer skills, highway applications and budgeting practices.

Teachers donate to go casual

Jaycee Dean Grimes, right, accepts more than $1,200 from Will Clayton of Hoopeston Area School District. Faculty and staff were given the opportunity to wear jeans on Friday from October until Christmas for a donation to the Jaycee's Christmas Project Fund.

Hoopeston Library holds 'Food for Fines'

During December, the Hoopeston Public Library will accept food, paper products and personal hygiene items such as shampoo, toothpaste, deodorant and bar soap for fines for overdue library materials.

All donated items will be given to the Grant Township Food Cupboard. Each donated item counts as $1 towards overdue fines. The Food Cupboard really needs cereal so boxes of cereal will be worth $2 off a fine.

Anyone who does not owe a fine but would like to donate cereal will have their account credited for each box of cereal donated.

Lost times will still require full payment to cover the cost of replacement.

This is a change to bring back that car repair manual borrowed many years ago, or that copy of "Watseka" that just happened to get placed on your own library shelf.
