Police News

An 18-year-old Hoopeston woman reported Wednesday that someone took her Cornjerker jacket from a locker at Hoopeston Area High School, 615 E. Orange. Keys and personal items were in the jacket.

Cristin R. Prince, 16, of 314 W. Penn, was ticketed for failure to yield to oncoming traffic after stopping following an accident at 3:37 p.m. Wednesday.

Police said Prince, in a 1998 Dodge Neon, stopped at West Penn and South Third Ave., entered the intersection and hit a 1997 Chevrolet Blazer driven by Guadalupe G. Cordova, also of Hoopeston.

No injuries were reported.

Briefly

Tiny Tots

"Christmas" is the theme of this week's Tiny Tots story program at the Hoopeston Public Library children's room. Tiny Tots meets at 10:30 a.m. Fridays and 6:30 p.m. Tuesdays and is for children ages 1-4 who are accompanied by an adult.

This will be the last Tiny Tots until Jan. 6.

Milford names new chief

Mike Bane of Hoopeston was named police chief by the Milford Village Board Tuesday. The Hoopeston resident will move to the Milford area in the near future.

In the spotlight

Amanda Burch of Hoopeston introduces herself during a costume contest Wednesday at the Lorraine Theatre. The youngster, dressed as a hobbit, and her brother and sister, Tony and Jessica were among approximately 30 people who donned costumes for the contest prior to the 7 p.m. showing of "The Lord of the Rings: the Return of the King." The Burches saw the show compliments of their father, Todd, a serviceman stationed in Iraq, when he was home recently. The three were accompanied by their mother, Kim, who also served in Iraq and is now home.
