Camp applications accepted

Green Meadows Girl Scout council is accepting resident summer camp applications. The camp is open to all girls entering grades two-12 in the fall. Girls do not need to have been a Girl Scout during the 2002-03 year to participate. Camp sessions are three-five days starting the end of June and continuing through July. A schedule of sessions is available at www.greenmead-grlsct.org.

Cost is $90 for the three-day programs and $160 for four- and five-day programs. Some camper-ships are available.

For information, call (217) 328-5112 or (217) 442-7981. Brochures are available at the Danville Service Center, 613 W. Madison, Danville.

Former Bismarck man killed in single-vehicle accident

A former Bismarck man was killed in a single-vehicle rollover accident Sunday.

Joshua C. Zigler, 21, formerly of Bismarck, most recently of Covington, Ind., was pronounced dead at 7:40 a.m. Sunday in the emergency room of Provena United Samaritans Medical Center, Logan campus, according to Vermilion County Coroner Peggy Johnson.

The accident occurred one-quarter mile north of the Vermilion County Airport on Bowman. Mr. Zigler was traveling southbound on Bowman when his truck left the roadway and he was thrown from the vehicle.

Heave-ho

Larry Watkins of Sentry Roofing Company, Danville, tugs a rope to move a giant slide attached to the roof of the First Christian Church on Main St. Before the new roof is installed, Watkins and two other Sentry employees, tore off the old roof and sent pieces of it, along with dirt and other debris, down the chute into a roll-off box. “It sure saves us from making a mess,” Watkins said.
