Motel meeting postponed, mayor asks for residents' letters

A meeting set for Thursday to discuss a hoped-for motel in Hoopeston has been postponed until next week.

Mayor Chalmers Flint planned to meet with the developer Thursday but said Thursday morning that the man extended his vacation and will be unable to meet until next week, possibly late in the week.

The developer had expressed interest in opening a motel in Hoopeston but recently began considering four or five other communities, Flint has said.

To help bolster Hoopeston's chances of landing the inn, Flint is asking residents to write letters of support. Letters may be send to Flint at city hall, 301 W. Main St., Hoopeston, IL 60942.

"I'll be glad to give him the letters when we do meet," he said.

Party planned for serviceman
