Dave Hollen of the Hoopeston Water Department, used a backhoe to move a piece of Market Street Wednesday morning. A broken water main in front of the Willdon Building caused the street to be closed for most of the day.

Water main break closes 200 block of South Market Street

City water department workers spent most of Wednesday working on a water main break in the 200 block of South Market.

Crews were called to the site early in the morning after water was seen coming through the sidewalk in front of the Willdon Building, 210 S. Market. Workers spent most of the morning opening the street and pumping water from the crater into the street before repairs could begin.

Water was shut off to businesses in the block, severely affecting only Hair Etc. Owner Rita Rayls said she was in the middle of highlighting a customer's hair when she was notified that the water would be turned off. She finished her work just as the taps were turned.

The street was also closed to traffic allowing a back-
