Community Fund to hold annual street corner drive Friday

The United Community Fund of Grant Township will start raising money to distribute to area youth and service groups Friday with a street corner collection. Volunteers will accept donations from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the intersections of routes 1 and 9, Main and Market streets, and Market and Penn streets in Hoopeston.

The United Community Fund of Grant Township is a local umbrella group that grants money to area organizations, including the Hoopeston Area Ministerial Association, Hoopeston Multi-Agency, Teen Reach, Hoopeston Area Youth Club, Grant Township Food Cupboard, Cub Scout and StingRays swim team.

Last year, the group collected $2,724.16 of the $33,520 it granted to area groups at the street corner drive.

The annual fund drive kick-off luncheon will be held Sept. 29 at noon. Donations may be mailed to United Community Fund of Grant Township, 206 S. First Ave., Hoopeston, IL 60942, or The Chronicle, 308 E. Main St., Hoopeston, IL 60942.

This year's fund drive chairman is Jillian Duchowski, editor of The Chronicle.
