Danville mayor to again host National Sweetheart Pageant

A familiar face will serve as master of ceremonies for this year's National Sweetheart Pageant.

Scott Eisenhauer, on his second term as mayor of Danville, will do the honors for the pageant, which starts at 7 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Eisenhauer will be responsible for introducing the contestants but it will be the judges who determine which of them will be named the National Sweetheart.

This year's panel of judges includes:

- Jamie Breeding, of Lexington, Ken., is CEO/ executive director of the Miss Kentucky pageant and has been involved with the Miss America pageant for 20 years. He currently serves on the board of directors for the National Association of Miss America State Pageants.
- Mary Ann Coskery, a director and producer in California and corporate events producer with American City Business Journals, a division of Condé Naste publications. Coskery has judged numerous Miss America state pageants and was a local preliminary winner her-

Hoopeston Regional Health Center to 'Go Red for Women'

Women's hearts can be tender both emotionally, and as medical experts have learned, physically as well.

Hoopeston Regional Health Center is doing something about the latter, urging women to take charge of their heart health. The center is sponsoring "Go Red for Women," a three-hour presentation on the women's #1 killer - heart disease.

The event, co-sponsored by the American Heart Association, will be held from 5-8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 9 at the First Presbyterian Church, 915 E. Orange, Hoopeston.

Registration will begin at 5 p.m., along with exhibits and demonstrations. At 5:10 Pat Bailey, founda-self.

• Robert Loy, vice president and judges chairman of the Miss Florida pageant. He has been active with the Miss America program for 20 years and has judged pageants in Louisiana and Indiana. He is employed by Metropolitan Charities Community Services as a senior social worker.

• Mac Sisson, a retired assistant director of public relations and director of the news bureau at Ouachita Baptist University. The Arkansas resident serves as volunteer state field director and director of press relations for the Miss Arkansas pageant. He has judged pageants in eight states and each year is a Miss Arkansas delegate to the Miss America pageant.

• Tara Watson, Miss Texas 2000 and AIDS awareness activist. Watson was also active in "Texas Cares for Children," a program encouraging students to make smart decisions, stay in school and stay drug free. She is currently a professional health care representative for Pfizer Pharmaceuticals.

tion director and Mike Brown, CEO, will welcome guests, followed at 5:20 p.m. by screenings for blood pressure, glucose and HDL/LDL cholesterol. Women taking the cholesterol test are encouraged to fast for eight to 10 hours or a more accurate reading.

At 6 p.m., cardiologist Dr. Malec Mokraoui will speak on women's heart health at 6:30, local speaker Kendra Smiley will talk about "Motivating Yourself to Positive Change."

Door prizes will be awarded and heart-healthy snacks will be served all evening. Recipes for the snacks will be available.

Reservations are not necessary but greatly appreciated. For more information or to register, call

A simple way to keep city clean

Citizens of Hoopeston:

There is a very simple way that you, as citizens, can help to beautify Hoopeston. QUIT BLOWING GRASS IN THE STREET! It is totally useless for the city to have a $100,000 piece of equipment to sweep the streets when five minutes after they have swept, people mow their yards and let the grass clippings blow out into the street. Over a period of time, the drains become clogged with grass, the sewers back up into basements or simply flood the streets.

The City workers and the Jaycees have worked very hard to welcome the visitors to our fair city this weekend. Won't you help now and in the future by not letting your grass clippings blow into the street?

Hoopeston is a wonderful place to live. Let's show visitors how proud we are to live here.

Respectfully
David Knake

Police News

Two people were arrested at 3:34 p.m. Wednesday at Eighth St. and Wyman.

Brandon D. Arms, 18, of 429 W. Washington was charged with illegal transportation of alcohol, illegal consumption of alcohol by a minor and on a Vermilion County traffic warrant for failure to appear in court.

He was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville in lieu of bond.

David M. Stephen, 48, of 202 E. Maple, Ambia, Ind., was charged with illegal transportation of alcohol and sale, gift or delivery of alcohol to a minor.

He was released on $100 cash bond.

Michael A. Burke, 19, of 1220 E. Williams, Danville, was arrested Wednesday at Parkview Court on complaints from a 51-year-old and a 46-year-old Hoopeston woman.

He was charged with robbery after the women alleged that he was one of three men who took undisclosed amounts of money from one woman's hand and the other's purse. The three then fled on foot.

The incident occurred at 4:10 p.m. at Parkview Court. Burke was arrested approximately three hours later in the 300 block of West Penn.

He was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Charles Earl Campbell, 19, of 717 E. Thompson was arrested at 10:07 p.m. Wednesday in the Hoopeston Community Hospital emergency room.

He was charged with disorderly conduct and was released on a notice to appear.

Robert L. Skinner, 44, of 1950 E 200 N Rd., was arrested at 1:41 a.m. Thursday after a traffic stop at West Penn and Route 1.

Skinner was charged with possession of methamphetamine manufacturing chemicals and was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await

WHPO owners to purchase local AM sports radio station

Tonya Ayers, station manager of 1460 Sports ESPN radio station WJCI AM announced Wednesday that an agreement has been reached to sell the station to Hooterville Broadcasting of Hoopeston, operators of WHPO-FM, 100.9. A management agreement turns the day-to-day operation of WJCI over to Hooterville Broadcasting while awaiting approval of the sale by the Federal Communication Commission.

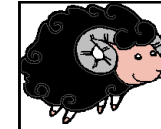

The principal owners of Hooterville Broadcasting are Tink and Gary Voss and Russell Leigh, all of Hoopeston, and Joe Young of Cissna Park.

The Voss' have more than 40 years' of radio experience including stations WGFA in Watseka and WITY in Danville. Hooterville Broadcasting has been in business since 1995.

The WJCI format is expected to remain as an ESPN Sports affiliate with more local items added as time and personnel allow.

Ayers and her late husband, Keith, have operated the station since January 2000.
