Hoopeston Area High School sets Homecoming in 'Jungle'

Hoopeston Area High School students went wild this week with the Homecoming theme "Jungle."

Week-long activities culminate Friday starting at 2 p.m. with the annual Homecoming parade from the high school to the downtown area. Each class will have a float in the parade and the Hoopeston Area Marching Cornjerkers will perform along the route.

King, queen and attendants will also be in the parade. This year's queen candidates are Kali Lane, Randi McFadden, Emily Stebbins and Jordan Hornbeck. King candidates are Jake Mott, Richard Sollars, Chad Garrison and Danny Allen.

Attendants are juniors Kasey Carl and Cristin Prince; sophomores Cayla Knight and Anthony Hornbeck and freshmen Alex Wilson and Brock Baker.

At 7 p.m. Friday, the Cornjerkers will take on Westville in the Homecoming game. At halftime, the king and queen will be crowned and the float winners announced.

Homecoming activities conclude Saturday with a dance from 8-11 p.m. in the high school gym.
