Maple Elementary School students have designs on t-shirts

Alejandra Limon and Jonathan Morales

Police News

Police reported Tuesday that the parish hall doors at St. Anthony Catholic Church were damaged between Friday night and Sunday morning.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 3:33 p.m. Tuesday in the 800 block of East Seminary.

Police said Floyd F. Berry of Hoopeston, in a 1997 Ford truck, backed out of a drive and hit an eastbound 1992 Mercury driven by Diane M. Lane, also of Hoopeston.

Lane reported an injury to her left hand.

Amy L. Houston, 29, of 37223 N 1830 East Rd., Hoopeston, was arrested at 6:50 p.m. Tuesday, charged with forgery. Police said Houston allegedly tried to pass a forged prescription at CVS, 805 S. Chicago.

Houston was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Two Maple School students hope others will be sporting their designs.

First grader Alejandra Limon and Early Childhood student Jonathan Morales are this year's winners in the Maple School T-Shirt contest, sponsored by Maple PTO.

"If You Can Believe It, You Can Achieve It" is the theme of Limon's shirt, which was designed with the help of her family. The design includes a stalk of corn and three characters holding hands around it.

Morales' design, also done by the family, is "Learning and Growing." It incorporates a flower and watering can with letters and numbers. A bee holding a "B" rounds out the design.

The winning students will each receive a free shirt for their efforts.

The shirts will be royal blue with white designs and range from $7 for a t-shirt to $18 for a hooded sweat-shirt.

Sizes range from youth small (6-8) to adult XXXXL. Larger sizes cost up to $6 more.

For ordering information, call Tina Samet, 283-5993, Melissa Myers 283-6430 or the school, 283-6665 as soon as possible.
