Police News

Wayne S. Probes, 31, of 826 E. Chestnut was arrested after a police chase through Hoopeston Friday morning.
 Police were called to the 800 block of East Chestnut regarding a man beating a windshield out of a vehicle. When police arrived, Probes allegedly took off in the vehicle and led police throughout the city until he was arrested in the 500 block of East Wyman.
 Probes was charged with driving on revocation, aggravated fleeing and eluding police officers, resisting arrest and a stop sign violation.
 He was treated at Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital for glass in his eye. Sgt. James Goodrum was treated for a sprained ankle.
 Probes was later taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.
No tickets were reported in an accident at 10:42 p.m. Saturday in the 900 block of East Orange.
 Police said Mittie J. Box of East Lynn was west-bound when she lost control of her 1999 Dodge, slid across the highway and hit a tree. Box suffered minor injuries which did not require medical attention, police said.
Eric R. Bell, 19, of 638 E. Thompson was arrested
