Republican caucus to have races for trustee, commissioner

The Jan. 11 Republican caucus will feature races for Grant Township trustees and road commissioner.

Six candidates have filed letters-of-intent seeking four trustee positions. Incumbents Rich Thompson, Dale Lithgow and Connie Wilson have filed to run along with challengers Jim Crouch, Dave Ervin and Mike Eckersley.

Two candidates are vying for Republican candidate for road commissioner, including Gary Weinard and current trustee Steve Willard.

The caucus will be held from 6-7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 11 at Hoopeston City Hall, said Rod Kaag, caucus coordinator. Voting is open to anyone who did not vote Democratic in the last primary election, Kaag said. Voters' names will be checked against voting records, he said.

Although candidates had until 6 p.m. Tuesday to file letters of intent, Kaag said nominations will also be accepted from the floor. Those names will have to be written in on ballots that will be printed prior to the caucus.

Youth club scores with donation from Uniroyal, Neal Tire

Neal Tire and Auto and Uniroyal Tire have donated funds and equipment valued at more than $1,650 to the Hoopeston Area Youth Club as part of a nationwide youth soccer program.

"This is such a great program because everyone benefits," said Chuck Wallace of Neal Tire. "The kids get free soccer balls, the league receives funds and we have the opportunity to meet new families. The community has been really good to us so we're thrilled to be working with the Hoopeston Area Youth Club to give something back."

Uniroyal Tire has completed its fourth year as a major sponsor of youth soccer and the impact of its support keeps growing - with 350,000 free soccer balls given to families and a total donation of $5 million in funds and equipment.
