DACC Foundation now accepting scholarship applications

Danville Area Community College Foundation is currently accepting applications for more than 150 scholarships to be used during the 2005-2006 school year. In addition, applications allow students to apply for the 21st Century Scholars Program scholarships from the National Science Foundation.

The 21st Century Scholars Program provides 30 students each year with scholarships in computer science, mathematics, and engineering. The awards are valued at $2,300 per student per year. The program also provides internship opportunities for the scholarship recipients each year with local companies, providing an $800 stipend per internship.

Other than the FAFSA students and prospective students need complete only one form to be considered for all Foundation scholarships. First-time DACC students, recent high school graduates, and current DACC students are encouraged to apply.

The DACC Foundation Scholarship applications are available in the DACC Foundation, Information, Registration, Counseling, Financial Aid, and Division Chair offices. In addition, scholarship applications are also available at the Harry Braun Technology Center, the Mary Miller Center, the DACC Library, and various locations throughout campus.

Scholarship applications may also be completed via the Internet at www.dacc.edu. Visitors to the website can click on the “For Students” tab, and then click on “Scholarships” located on the left side of the web page to access the on-line application.

The deadline is 5 p.m., Tuesday, February 15, 2005. Completed applications must be returned to the DACC Foundation, Vermilion Hall – Third Floor, 2000 E. Main St., Danville, IL 61832.

Those selected will be notified by mail. For additional information, call the DACC Foundation Office at (217) 443-8843.
