Work to start on hospice room at Hoopeston Community Hospital

Remodeling and furnishing has begun on the Tim Bray Memorial Respite/Hospice Room at Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital.

The Tim Bray family donated $5,000 to the hospital in order for friends and families to have a respite/hospice room available for those in need. The funds were made possible through the generous donations made to the Tim Bray Memorial.

The Memorial is set and ready to go with their third annual Tim Bray Memorial Golf Outing Saturday, Aug. 6 at Hubbard Trail Country Club in rural Hoopeston.

Mr. Bray died of glioblastoma, a malignant brain tumor. Money from the golf outing and donations are used to support cancer research, assist families facing this challenge and increase public knowledge of brain tumors.

Donations may be sent to Tim Bray Memorial
