Anglo, Hispanic cultures celebrated at Fiesta Open House

Event may become annual celebration

More than 50 Hoopeston area residents enjoyed Mexican and American desserts at a Fiesta Open House Saturday at the Hoopeston Public Library.

The event celebrated both cultures with displays in Spanish, English and a combination of the two.

Among those with information available were the library, Hoopeston Regional Health Center, Hoopeston Migrant Head Start and Multi Agency Service Center.

Several prizes were given away during the event. Winners included:

Emma Glotzbach - piñata

Taylor Sullivan - Casey's gift certificate

Amy Linares - Casey's gift certificate

Luis Aviles - DVD

Carolyn Eyrich-Mastin - vase.

Event organizers were happy with attendance at the fiesta and plan to hold another next year.

The open house was sponsored by the library and Maria Linares of Project Max.

Emma and Andrea Glotzbach enjoy refreshments during Saturday's Fiesta Open House at the Hoopeston Public Library. Emma won a piñata in drawings held during the event.
