Information, entertainment focus of WHPO Business Expo

Whether you're looking for something new or want to see long-time favorites, the WHPO Business Expo will offer something for everyone.

The Expo will be held from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday and noon-4 p.m. Sunday at the McFerren Park Civic Center. Admission is free and free parking is available.

This year, 48 booths will be available, offering information, services and specials on everything from cell phones to windows.

In addition, Hoopeston Regional Health Center will offer free blood pressure checks, free sugar screens and fee body mass index checks both days.

Area sports groups, including T-Ball, Little League, Instructional League, Pony League, Girls Softball and Hoopeston Swim Team, will have signups at the Expo.

Entertainment will on hand both days. The John Greer band and chorus are set to perform at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, along with youngsters from Miss Barbara's Preschool. At 1:30 p.m., the Academy For the Performing Arts will provide entertainment.

Mike Webb Karate will give demonstrations at noon Sunday followed at 1:30 p.m. by the Hoopeston Area High School show choir and jazz band.

Monical's pulls liquor request

Monical's Pizza has withdrawn its request for a license to serve bottled beer at its Hoopeston restaurant.

Company employee Scott Hudson said Monday that the eatery withdrew its request because of costs associated with serving alcohol, including city and state license fees and increased insurance costs.

At the Feb. 7 Hoopeston City Council meeting, Hudson had requested the council address the request at its next meeting. At the Feb. 21 meeting, a handful of residents asked the council not to grant the license.
