Police News

A pouch was found Wednesday in the 300 block of East Main. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

The pouch was claimed later that day.

- A 20-year-old Hoopeston man reported Wednesday that the rear license plate and sticker was taken from his vehicle.
- A 22-year-old Hoopeston man reported Wednesday that someone took a nine-week-old puppy from a chain on his property in the 300 block of West Lincoln.
- A 23-year-old Hoopeston woman reported Thursday that an unknown man entered her apartment while she was asleep. The man took the woman's purse and fled.

Fredrick D. Brown, 37, of 1000 Harmon, Danville, was arrested at 10:31 a.m. Thursday after an incident at 1:47 a.m. at Parkview Court.

Brown was charged with aggravated domestic battery, aggravated criminal sexual abuse and unlawful restraint after he allegedly beat a 38-year-old Hoopeston woman.

The woman was hospitalized after the incident, police said.

Brown was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Both drivers were ticketed following an accident at 11:12 p.m. Thursday at South Fifth Ave. and West Elm.

Police said Thomas E. Crook, 45, of Milford, in a 1985 Ford was northbound and failed to yield, striking a 2005 Chevrolet driven by Amber N. Underwood, 20, of Hoopeston, who was westbound.

Police said the impact pushed Underwood's vehicle into the yard at 601 W. Elm.

Crook was ticketed for failure to yield the right of way at a marked intersection and operating an uninsured motor vehicle.

Underwood was cited for no valid registration.

Both drivers and unidentified passengers in Underwood's vehicle were treated and released from Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital.

- A 14-year-old Hoopeston youth reported Thursday that someone took a 20" yellow and silver Mongoose bicycle from the 100 block of North Third St. The bike is valued at $150.
- A 33-year-old Hoopeston woman reported Friday that someone damaged her 1992 Buick while it was at Parkview Court.
- A 29-year-old Hoopeston man reported Friday that someone took numerous items from a garage in the 900 block of East Young.
- A 53-year-old man reported Sunday that someone took several items from the 600 block of South Fifth Ave.
