Two youth football teams win, make it to first playoff games

Two Hoopeston Youth Football teams will play in the first games in the play-off season this Saturday.

The Hoopeston Peanuts team defeated Westville for their play-off berth. They will play at 1 p.m. Saturday at Oakwood.

Also making it to the play-offs is the league's Varsity team, which defeated Bismarck. They will play at 2 p.m. Saturday at Oakwood.

The Peanuts team, for children ages five-seven, is coached by Rafael Zamarrippa, Steve Highfill and Robby Zamarrippa.

The Varsity team, for players 12-14, is coached by Carlos Ramos, Ron Cade and Joe Thrasher.

Local first graders to get book

Books from HALO's "My Favorite Book" program will soon find their way into Vermilion County elementary first grade student's hands. During October, HALO Project, partnering with businesses and organizations who sponsor the cost of the book, will give each first grader in Vermilion County elementary schools a book titled "My Favorite Book" to take home and keep for their own.

Sponsors of the book for this school year are Country Companies Insurance & Financial Services - Danville, Century 21 Wind Realty LLC - Danville, Iroquois Federal Savings & Loan Association- Danville, Duckett Disposal - Danville, Blackie's Automatic Engineering - Danville, McLane Midwest - Danville, WDAN - Danville, Stone State Farm Insurance - Danville, YMCA - Danville, Bank of Rossville - Rossville, Perry Jaynes Insurance - Danville, Harris Agency - Pekin Insurance - Rossville, Elston
