Police investigate school threat, give data to state's attorney

Hoopeston police have investigated an incident reported by Hoopeston Area High School officials and have turned information over to the Vermilion County State's Attorney's office to determine if criminal charges will be filed.

The investigation stemmed from a request made on October 19 by school officials to look into a threat, naming nine male students and a specific date.

Hoopeston Police Chief Mark Drollinger declined to

"Gingerbread Boy and Girl" is the theme of this week's Tiny Tots story program. Tiny Tots meets at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday and 10:30 a.m. Friday at the Hoopeston Public Library children's room.

Tiny Tots is for children ages 1-4 who are accompanied by an adult.

Music Booster winners

Recent $100 winners in the Hoopeston Area Music Booster calendar drawing were: Oct. 27, Jack Thrasher; Nov. 3, Mark Hathaway.

Another $100 winner will be selected at Friday's fall concert.

Youth wrestling signups

Hoopeston Area Youth Wrestling signups will be 5-6 p.m. Thursday Nov. 9 in the high school cafeteria. The cost is $35 (IKWF membership card)

Anyone interested in wrestling will need a current physical and a copy of your child's birth certificate if they have never wrestled before. Parents must also complete a permit form.

Artists wanted

Hoopeston Public Library invites artists to register for the November 18, 2006 Art show and Sale. Registration forms are available at the library. Eligible items include acrylics, clay, digital art, drawings, fiber (no clothing), metal sculpture, mixed media, pastels, photography and printmaking. All items must be original.

Teachers ratify new contract, board vote expected Nov. 9

According to unconfirmed reports, the Hoopeston Education Association ratified a new contract at a meeting Wednesday afternoon.

HEA and school board negotiators agreed on a new contract after meeting with a federal mediator for more than 12 hours Monday night.

The Hoopeston Area Board of Education must also approve the contract. The board is expected to vote on it at their regular meeting November 9.

Details of the vote were not available at press time. Approximately 75 of the district's 102 teachers are union members.

Call (217) 283-6711 or visit the library for additional information.

Community Thanksgiving

Don't be alone this Thanksgiving! Join us at the Community Church of the Nazarene for dinner with all the trimmings. Dinner will be held on Thanksgiving Day, November 23, at the church, 402 E. Honeywell, Hoopeston. Serving will be noon -3:00 p.m. and there is absolutely no charge. If you know of someone who is not able to get out of their home and would like a meal, please call the church to get one delivered.

Everyone is welcome! For more information, call the church at 217-283-9771 or Lynn at 217-2839676.

Donations are welcome. We would welcome boxes of instant potatoes, cans of sweet potatoes, dressing, cranberry sauce, and rolls.

Vendors sought

Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce is looking for vendors (crafts, food, etc.) for Santa's Day, Saturday, Nov. 25. The event will be held in the McFerren Park Civic Center for 2-3 hours. Set-up is free but space is limited. You must provide your own tables. To reserve a space, all the Chamber, 283-7873, Mondays or Thursdays.

Threat continued from other side

identify the type of threat made but said the case affected several Hoopeston residents, causing "fear in the community" among families of the young men listed and rumors among other residents.

Police and school officials were in contact with parents of students whose names were listed in the written message.

Evidence was turned over to the Illinois State Police Forensic Laboratory. Those results, along with evidence, were then turned over to the state's attorney's office. Criminal charges could range from criminal damage to state-supported property and disorderly conduct.

The investigation revealed a suspect. Drollinger said he believes the person suspected of issuing the threat was looking for attention. "He got more attention than he bargained on," he added.

Drollinger had praise for school officials who brought the case to the attention of police. "I really appreciate how the school handled it," he said.
