Hoopeston Multi Agency announces free spring classes

Whether you're interested in living a more healthy lifestyle, planning your estate or sprucing up your yard, the Hoopeston Multi Agency has classes that will help.

Beth Totheroh, clinic manager of Charlotte Ann Russell Medical Center, will talk about "Tips for Healthy Living" at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the Multi Agency, 206 S. First Ave. She will also introduce Dr. Jay Colbert.

Retired Hoopeston attorney Paul Manion will talk about "Estate Planning for Non-Millionaires" from noon-2 p.m. Tuesday, May 22. Topics will include joint tenancy, transferring property to children, when wills are needed, living wills, powers of attorney for healthcare and property. Manion will help, at no charge, anyone interested in signing a healthcare power of attorney.

Jack Miller will speak on "Ponds" at 10 a.m. Tuesday, May 29. Miller, who owns Water Features by Jack Miller, will talk about planning, building and maintaining ponds. The Multi-Agency van will be available to take people to each site for demonstration purposes, if needed.

There is no fee for the classes and reservations are not required. Refreshments will be served. For more information on any of the classes, call the Multi Agency at (217) 283-5533.
