Hoopeston service groups to hold Memorial Day ceremony

The Hoopeston American Legion and VFW, along with their respective auxiliary organizations, will conduct the traditional Memorial Day service at 10:30 a.m. Monday at Floral Hill Cemetery.

The service will feature the Hoopeston Area High School band, along with comments from each respective organization.

Following the ceremony, the community is welcome to attend a free luncheon at the Hoopeston VFW, located at the corner of Fourth Ave. and West Orange St.

In case of inclement weather, residents are asked to listen to WHPO to see if services have been moved to the McFerren Park Civic Center.

Officers, directors named at Historical Society banquet

Hoopeston Historical Society held its annual banquet and election of officers at Ruby Nell's on May 21.

The meeting marked the 20th anniversary of the group's organization by members of the Hoopeston Hobby Club in May 1987. Mildred Cadle was general chairman and committee members were Burt Livingston, Fern Anderson, and Gertrude Evans.

The society, whose membership exceeds 200, meets the third Monday of each month (except December) at the Hoopeston Public Library at 6:30 p.m.

The Floral Hill Cemetery Chapel restoration and upkeep is an ongoing project headed by Tom Gress and committee. The street lamps in front of the Lorraine Theatre were purchased by the society. Fundraisers are held to support projects.

Current officers elected by the 34 members attending were Pat Fraley, president; Tom Gress, vice president; Jean Minick, secretary; Robert Schwartz, treasurer; and Board of Directors, Edith Deany, Diane Goin and R. Tommy McMillan.

Curt Clouse, son of club charter members Ann Clouse and the late Earl Clouse, performed songs from the past on his keyboard. Curt, a former resident of East Lynn, is a frequent visitor to our community.

Police News

Susan N. Schmink, 22, of 405 N. Market was arrested at 11:15 a.m. Wednesday. She was charged with theft under $300 and forgery on a complaint from a 73-year-old Hoopeston woman who alleged Schmink took several of her checks and forged them at several Hoopeston businesses.

She was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Garrett O. Hulett, 27, of #27 Parkview Court was arrested at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday at his home. Hulett, wanted on two Vermilion County warrants for failure to appear on traffic charges, was taken to the Public Safety Building in lieu of bond.

Chris M. Hofbauer, 22, of Rankin was arrested at 11:34 p.m. Wednesday in the 200 block of East Thompson. He was charged with driving on a suspended license and no proof of insurance.

Hofbauer was released on bond.

Reading together

On March 1 & 2, Carolyn Eyrich-Mastin's third grade class read Dr. Seuss books to students from Miss Barbara's School House. On Thursday, Mrs. McVicker's morning and afternoon students walked to Honeywell School to listen to stories read by the 3rd graders. On Friday, March 2, Dr. Seuss's birthday, the third grade students went to Miss Barbara's School House to read to the 3 year old class.
