Donations assure Fourth of July fireworks in Hoopeston

Several Hoopeston businesses have pitched in to make sure residents will have a colorful Independence Day.

Due to rising costs of fireworks, Hoopeston New Car Dealers, which had provided funds for the fireworks display for the past couple of years, asked for - and received - help from other businesses.

Businesses donating include:

Hoopeston New Car Dealers

McMurray Insurance

Iroquois Federal

Harris Insurance

Community Bank

Edwards Jones

Anderson Funeral Home
Hoopeston American Legion
Country Insurance

Olympic Do It Best Hardware

Sharon Dixon-First Allied Securities

Hoopeston Regional Health Center

Additionally, the City of Hoopeston will donate up to $1,200 towards the display, estimated to cost $9,000.

The fireworks display will begin at dusk on Tuesday, July 3.

Local residents among Danville Area Community College Level I, Level II nursing students

A nursing recognition ceremony was held Friday, May 18 at Danville Area Community College. Twenty-nine students from Level I and 25 students from Level II nursing participated in this special ceremony.

Nursing faculty members at DACC include Nicole Dye MSN, RN; Sue Brown, MS, RN; Joanna Commons, MSN, RN; Patricia Harlow MSN, RN; Patricia Brown MSN, RN (ret.); Jacqueline Cole

MSN, RN; and Dianne Manganaro, MS, RN. Connie Schroeder MS, RN, is Director of Nursing Education at the college.

Level I students are entry level nursing students who will take a State Board Exam for licensure as a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) later in the year. Level II students are either continuing their nursing education from Level I, or are currently LPNs in the community who want to complete an Associate Degree of Nursing (ADN). Level II students take a State Board Exam for licensure as Registered Nurses (RN) later in the year. Both levels of graduates participated in the Commencement ceremony later in the day.

Area students graduating from the Level II program included Lisa Longest and Billie Pollom, both of Milford.

Level I students included Debra Rainwater and Trisha Willard of Rossville and Ashley McElhaney, Holly Warner, Joyce Espinoza and Reynaldo Acosta of Hoopeston.
