Council sees possible plan for skate park at Cheese Park

A possible design for a skate park at Northside Park (Cheese Park) was unveiled at Tuesday night's Hoopeston City Council meeting. The 60'x60' design was created by a friend of Alderman Carl Ankenbrand, and uses a concrete pad with holes to resemble Swiss cheese. No action was taken on the design.

In other business, the council:

- Approved the 2007 tax levy for $646,327 after abating taxes on the water/sewer bonds.
- Accepted a $4,028.50 bid from Ervin Construction for four entry doors at the water department.
- Heard thanks from Alderman Jerry Yonkers to Art Jeffers who fixed the city street sweeper for less than previous estimates. Jeffers is also fixing the leaf vac.

Police News

Pamela Fisher, 62, of Ambia, Ind., was ticketed for failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident at 9:42 a.m. Tuesday. Police said Fisher, in a 2005 Hyundai, was southbound on Third St. when she entered the intersection of East Penn and hit an eastbound 1998 Buick driven by Ashley Pickett of Hoopeston.

No injuries were reported in the accident.
