Foundation workshop Tuesday
The Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a Community Foundation Workshop from 6-8 p.m. Tuesday, March 31 m at the Presbyterian Church in Hoopeston.

Joedy Hightower, Executive Director of the Effingham County Community Foundation will provide information on establishing a Community Foundation for Hoopeston.

Community foundations are tax-exempt public charities that can be used by communities as a long-term funding source for various community and economic development initiatives and serves as a vehicle in which donors can contribute a variety of assets towards the betterment of the community.

Community leaders and volunteers interested in establishing a long-term, sustainable funding source for community and economic development in Hoopeston are invited to attend.
