Letters to the Editor

What's that smell?

I am a tax paying citizen of Hoopeston. I have lived in this area for many years. I have one question....What is that god forsaken smell. It seems to be getting stronger every year. Is it the odor of dirty diapers, dog poop, overused toilet, or a very dirty outhouse? No, it's our fine city.

Our city council has been working on approving a new housing development for "future" residents of Hoopeston. Would it be to much to ask for our city officials to address this "foul odor" problem for the residents who already live here and pay here. Our motto is Live here, Love here, Shop here. I, for one, can't wait to get out of Hoopeston to spend my money because I cannot tolerate that gagging smell. I can smell it inside my house while the windows and doors are shut. Let's concentrate on fixing the present problems in Hoopeston before we bring in new problems with this new housing development.

I long for the day that I am able to have a backyard BBQ without the fear of that embarrassing smell hovering around my guests. I am sure there are other Hoopeston citizens who will back me up on this.

City officials lets get our priorities in order.
