Police News

Police are investigating a hit-and-run accident reported at 8:10 a.m. Thursday in the 900 block of West Washington, when an unknown vehicle hit a parked vehicle owned by Sherrie G. Leslie of Hoopeston.

A 37-year-old Hoopeston woman reported at 11 a.m. Thursday that someone cut a tire on her vehicle parked in the 600 block of East Thompson.

Christina M. Trevino, 30, was charged with three counts of failure to secure child under eight years old in appropriate child restraint system after a traffic stop at 7:27 p.m. Thursday. Trevino was released on a notice to appear in Vermilion County Circuit Court.

Theodore J. Cano, 29, of Hoopeston, was cited for noisy animals prohibited at 10:22 p.m. Thursday in the 600 block of Honeywell. He was charged on a complaint from a 32-year-old Hoopeston woman. He was issued a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

A 40-year-old man reported Friday that someone cut a tire on his vehicle parked in the 500 block of West Washington.

Darryl K. Hunter, 42, of Hoopeston, was cited for retrain of dog by owner at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the 300 block of East Elm. The charge came on a complaint from a woman who alleged Hunter struck the dog several times while it was on her property. While an officer was speaking with the woman, Hunter's second dog wandered down the street. The officer returned that dog to him and issued the ticket.

John K. Schwartz, 23, of Hoopeston, was arrested after an incident at 6:39 p.m. Saturday in the 800 block of East Seminary. He was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor and sale, gift or delivery of alcoholic liquor to person under 21 and was released on $100 bond.

Wesley T. Williams, 23, of Laurel PG, Md., was arrested after an incident at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in the 700 block of South Second Ave. He was charged with disorderly conduct on a complaint from a woman who alleged Williams made remarks that shocked and alarmed
