Emily Burton makes change
 Effective December 17, Emily Burton has joined a new real estate company.
 Burton is now a broker associate for Danville-based Connie Davis Realty.
 Burton said the change is in the best interest of her clients and allows her to serve them better. "My clients all feel it is more convenient to have someone locally who is in touch with the community," she said.

Burton remains a member of the Danville Area Board of Realtors and Multiple Listing Service, allowing her to show all listed properties.

She can be reached at (217) 283-5431 or (217) 260-2998.

Teacher attends conference

Adam Elliot of Rossville Elementary School, attended a conference on "The Evolution of Science Education: From So Simple a Beginning."

The conference, which took place November 13-14, was presented by the Illinois Science Teachers Association.

It celebrated the heritage of science leaders in Illinois and the innovations in science, and addressed some of the science-teaching challenges of today and tomorrow. The 42nd annual conference was attended by more than 600 science teachers and professionals in Illinois.

Briefly

Lights on

Rossville's Christmas display at Christman Park will be lighted from 5:30-9 p.m. nightly through December. Come enjoy the scene. There is no charge.

Food for fines

Hoopeston Public Library is holding its annual Food for Fines program during December. The library will accept nonperishable food and paper products. Each item counts as $1 towards fines only.

The library will be closed December 24-27 and will reopen with regular hours on Monday, December 28.

The residents of the Hoopeston Nursing Home wish you and your family a Happy Holiday Season. The Nursing Home will be having their annual Bow Tree where you may purchase any color bow and it will then be placed on the tree located in the lobby. It will also include your personalized message.

This year, money raised will go towards the purchase of a flat screen TV for the residents' activity room. We thank you for remembering us this Holiday Season.
