Holy cow

A dead cow lies on at 2925 East Road in Iroquois County after being hit by a truck driven by Penny Galloway of rural Hoopeston. Galloway and her son were westbound on the road at about 5:30 a.m. Tuesday, when she hit a cow. She went into the ditch to avoid striking more of the 12 cows that were on the road, but struck two more. Her truck slid sideways in the ditch before rolling over on the driver's side, according to an Iroquois County Sheriff's Department spokesperson. Both Galloway and her son were taken to Iroquois Memorial Hospital with slight injuries. Milford Ambulance and Wellington-Greer Fire Department responded to the scene.
