Alderman discusses pool maintenance, possible design change

With the swim season over, Alderman Carl Ankenbrand talked swimming pool issues at Tuesday night's Hoopeston City Council meeting.

Ankenbrand asked the council to consider purchasing a spare pump for the pool to have on hand. Earlier this year, the pool pump broke, causing the pool to be closed for several days until a supplier found one at the high school in Anderson, Ind.

"My opinion is, if we're going to keep the pool open, it would be nice to have a backup pump so this doesn't happen again," he said.

The city also needs to replace the one borrowed from the school, Ankenbrand said.

Pump prices range from $3,000 to $6,500, depending on the model selected.

In related discussion, Ankenbrand asked the council to consider changing the kiddy pool to a splash pad area. A plus to the splash pad is no lifeguard is needed to monitor the area.

A proposed splash pad design grids a 40' x 35' area into areas for families, teens and toddlers, with directional water jets, spray loops, fountain sprays and other attractions.

Ankenbrand asked for consideration of his sugges-

In unrelated discussion, the council:

Heard from Alderwoman Sue Comstock that members of a Model A club will drive the Dixie Highway Friday and will stop at McFerren Park at about 2 p.m. The McFerren Park Civic Center will be open to provide restroom facilities to club members and refreshments will be available. Comstock encouraged residents to be at the park to meet with club members.

Heard from Alderwoman Nancy Stipp that a new section of Floral Hill Cemetery will be opened. Bids will be sought with work being done in spring 2011.

Heard from Mayor Bill Crusinberry that trick-or-treat hours will be 5-8 p.m. on Halloween.
