Briefly

Lions Candy Day

Hoopeston Lions Club members will be selling candy Saturday at intersections in the city. Please give generously.

Softball meeting

Hoopeston Area Softball Association will meet at 2 p.m. Sunday in the John Greer art room.

Transportation information sought

Do you receive Medicaid? If you or someone you know has experienced problems with transportation services to your doctors or hospitals, please let us know. Call Hoopeston Multi Agency, (217) 283-

5544. We will take your needs and concerns to the State of Illinois.

Alley cleanup

Hoopeston's fall alley cleanup to begin October 4, weather permitting. They will pick up yard waste and tree limbs only. They will not empty barrels or accept brick, cement or landscape timbers.

Clarification

Recent press reports included information on residents may now pay "utility bills" online. Officials asked at Tuesday's Hoopeston City Council meeting that residents be told that online payment applies only to city water/garbage/sewer bills, not gas, electric or other utility bills.

Police News

A 30-year-old Hoopeston woman reported at 9 a.m. Wednesday that someone took Halloween decorations from her property in the 400 block of East Penn.

A 23-year-old Hoopeston woman reported at 6:49 p.m. Wednesday that someone took the gas cap from her vehicle and put chocolate in it. The incident happened in the 1000 block of Thompson.

Our hearts still ache with sadness and secret tears still flow. What it means to lose you no one will ever know. Our family chain is broken now and nothing seems the same. But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Love you, Joe & miss you.

Sadly missed and loved so much.
