

LET'S REMEMBER - Together

Care and Compassion has always been the legacy at Anderson Funeral Home. That's why we go the extra mile to show Families we care. Many Families have attended our annual Christmas Remembrance and we encourage your Family to Attend. No matter what Funeral Home serviced your Family; our Family welcomes you. At Anderson Funeral Home we go the extra mile to show families we care. It doesn't cost us more to provide better service.

Giving

Kylie and Allison Pickett give Bob Duffin $302 which the Maple School children raised for the Vietnam War Memorial honoring William Gooden and Joseph Kelnhofer. Students raised the money by saving their pennies. The donation was made at a Veterans Day celebration at Maple. Also pictured are Gene Hanson and Steve Unger, who, along with Duffin, are members of the American Legion/VFW color guard.
