Cultra named GOP spokesman Senate labor committee

SPRINGFIELD—As the Illinois Senate finishes its organization for the 97th General Assembly, State Sen. Shane Cultra (R-Onarga) announced his committee assignments for the current legislative cycle.

Cultra will serve as the Republican spokesman for the Senate's Labor Committee. The spokesman duties will focus on the state's labor and business issues.

Cultra began his role as Republican spokesman this week, when the General Assembly reconvened for the 2011 spring session. He also serves on the Senate's Local Government; Public Health; Redistricting and Revenue committees.
