Hoopeston Great American Cleanup Day winners listed

Some local artists were awarded for their work in encouraging others to recycle.

Sixth grade students at John Greer Grade School made posters about recycling. The posters were displayed in windows of downtown businesses during the Great American Cleanup Day and were voted on by people who attended the event.

First prize went to Julian Torres, who received a $50 Visa money card from Iroquois Federal, Movie Value Pak from The Lorraine Theatre, headset from Rod's Home and Auto, and Happy Meal from McDonald's.

Second place went to Karsen Root, who received a $25 Dairy Queen gift card, Movie Value Pak from The Lorraine Theatre, and Happy Meal from McDonald's.

Addriene Houmes was the third place winner, receiving a Family Pleaser from Monical's pizza, Movie Value Pak from The Lorraine Theatre and Happy Meal from McDonald's.

Winner of the golf cart rodeo was Orville Haxton with Gary Nelson as his sidekick. They won a trophy for their
