Police News

Correction

The police blotter for May 31 had incorrect information for an assault in the 600 block of West Main. The arrested person's name should have read Joshua Kempen, 21, of Hoopeston, not Joey Bennett.

A 17-year-old Rossville woman reported at 10 a.m. Friday that someone keyed her vehicle while it was in the 500 block of East McCracken.

Torrey W. Robinson, 44, of Hoopeston, was arrested after an incident at 9:26 p.m. Friday in the 800 block of East Main. He was charged with domestic battery after police responded to a caller who said he could hear sounds of domestic violence coming from a residence.

Robinson was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Douglas G. Land Jr., 49, of Hoopeston, was arrested after an incident at 8:58 a.m. Saturday at Downtown Motel, 200 E. Main. He was charged with criminal damage to property under $300 after he allegedly broke a window to a room.

Land was located, charged and released on a notice to appear in Vermilion County Circuit Court.

Luis H. Avelar, 26, of Hoopeston, was arrested after a traffic stop at 6:39 p.m. Saturday at Market and Maple, after he allegedly failed to stop at the intersection and after police reportedly saw a child standing in the car.

He was charged with no valid driver's license, failure to secure a child in a seatbelt and disobeying a stop sign.

Avelar was released on $100 bond.

Rep. Johnson to be in city

U.S. Rep. Tim Johnson (R-Urbana) is set to hold a town hall meeting at 5:30 p.m. Monday at Hoopeston City Hall, 301 W. Main to discuss federal issues and answer questions. Staff will also be on hand to respond to individual constituent concerns with federal agencies.
