Historian to offer classes on Indians of Vermilion County

Local historian Kevin R. Young will conduct a two evening class on Historic Indians of Old Vermilion at 6 p.m. Tuesday, July 19 and 6 p.m. Tuesday, July 26. The informative discussion complemented with graphics via a Power Point presentation will take place in the lobby of the Fischer Theatre.

The first session will include information about the Piankeshaw tribe. The second evening will cover the Kickapoo and the Trail of Death. Class times will last approximately 80 minutes.

Young is a writer and research historian with more than 30 years experience in the field. He is a published author and has appeared on several History Channel documentaries. A graduate of Eastern Illinois University, he is sixth generation Vermilion County resident who lives in Rossville.

Cost is $20 with registration deadline July 18. Make checks payable to: VHF (Vermilion Heritage Foundation). Sign up at Stage Presents-The Fischer Theatre Gift Shop, open 10-3 Thursday-Saturday, or contact Amy Chrisman at _ChrismanStudio@aol.com (mailto:ChrismanStudio@aol.com), or call 217-497-4686.

Boiling water suggested

Due to water main construction, it is recommended that residents living in the 200 block of McKibben Street in Rossville boil their water.

Candidate to be in Rankin

Come meet and greet Jason Barickman, candidate for 53rd District State Senator, at 7 p.m. Monday, July 18, at Rankin Lions Club, 200 S. Main St., Rankin.

Barickman hopes to let people learn of his goals while he learns about concerns of the citizens.
