Hoopeston Cornjerker athletics gets new quarterly publication

Hoopeston Area athletics will be spotlighted in a new quarterly publication.

The maiden issue of Cornjerker Athletics is now available at McDonald's, Subway and Mr. B's Cafe and will be online, said Kevin Root, HA athletic director.

A new publication will be created at the end of each sports season, Root said. Included in the publication will be highlights on outstanding athletes and sports, a wrap-up of all that season's sports, information on an alumnus who has gone on to participate in collegiate sports, focus on a coach and information from Elissa Hooper, district athletic trainer.

This premier issue features Lauren Houmes, who finished in sixth place at the IHSA cross country finals on November 5.

This issue also spotlights athletes' achievements in the classroom by averaging each team's grade point average for the first quarter and athletes who had a 4.0 GPA for the quarter. Those high school athletes include: soccer-Maddie Brown, Shelby Holzinger, Mason Jett, Levi Stebbins, Elijah Yates; cross country-Madie Brown, Lauren Houmes, Trevor Hurt, Erika Samet, Olivia Smith; football-Robert Baum, Aiden Berg, Connor

Filling in

The work—including also removing the pumps, concrete island and awning, is being done as part of the Illinois EPA's LUST (Leaking Underground Storage Tank) program, funded with federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act money.
