Samet girls named 2013 Miss Hoopeston, first runner-up

Saturday was a good day for the Samet family as one member was named Miss Hoopeston and another, first runner-up.

Jacy Samet, 19, daughter of Ken Samet and Ginger Gonzalez, will wear the Miss Hoopeston crown this year. She beat out three other contestants for the title.

Her cousin, Erika, 18, daughter of Greg and Tina Samet, was named first runner-up.

Other contestants were Meagan Cade, 18, daughter of Rickie and Angie Cade, and Brooke Kinney, 18, daughter of Allen and Lisa Kinney.

This year's search for Miss Hoopeston had more public input than previously. In years past, Hoopeston Jaycees selected girls to compete. This year, along with Jaycee input, girls could be nominated or nominate themselves.

Also, before Saturday's crowning, residents were able to hear each girl give a one-minute speech at Hoopeston Area High School auditorium.

Judges for the event, including Darrin Brewster, 2013 National Sweetcorn Festival chairman; Brad Hardcastle, Hoopeston Jaycees board chairman; Michelle Crabtree and Chris Schroeder, National Sweetheart Pageant officials; and Valarie Paulson, Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce president, tallied scores from the speeches with scored from earlier interviews to select the winner.

Memorials are suggested to National Breast Cancer Foundation 2600 Network Blvd. Suite 300 Frisco, TX 75034. Arrangements are being handled by Anderson Funeral Home, Hoopeston.

While waiting for the final results, outgoing Miss Hoopeston Abigail Foster gave a tearful farewell speech, telling contestants that whomever won would "have the time of your life."

A Modern Fairy Tale

Goldilocks' Porridge Shop

Goldilocks opened a porridge shop after visiting the Three Bears.

She wanted to increase business and advertised in the longest-running publication in the land. Then the bill came. "These prices are too high and nobody bought my porridge," she said. She advertised in another publication but noticed they piled up in doorways and saw dogs treating them as toys. "My ads are not being seen and no one is buying my porridge," she said.

Then she placed her ad in Just the Facts. Sales skyrocketed so she started a chain of porridge shops, bought a jet and and lived happily ever after!
