DACC announces graduating members of Class of 2013

DANVILLE—Nearly 200 recipients of associate degrees and career certificates participated in Danville Area Community College commencement ceremonies on May 17, representing more than 450 graduates in the Class of 2013. In all, nearly 800 Associate degrees and/or career certificates were awarded during the 2013 academic year.

William B. "Bill" Black, Danville Ward 7 alderman and former Illinois State Representative, gave the commencement address. Black is a DACC Alumnus and is a former administrator at the College.

In student participation activities, the tassel ceremony was led by Katie E. Walder, Hoopeston, summa cum laude candidate receiving an ASA degree in English.

Graduates who achieved a grade point average of 4.000 received summa cum laude honors; those who achieved a grade point average of 3.750-3.999 received magna cum laude honors; and those who achieved a grade point average of 3.500-3.749 received cum laude honors.
