Hoopeston Area graduate earns Soldier of the Month

A Hoopeston resident has been named Soldier of the Month for his platoon.

Specialist James "Kyle" Newton competed against other nominees in a physical fitness test - on which he scored 100 percent - and an appearance before a board of Senior NCOs to answer questions on Army history and other matters.

Newton graduated from Hoopeston Area High School and joined the Army in 2011. Stationed at Ft. Myers in Washington, D.C., he is on the firing party that performs 21 gun salutes at funerals in Arlington Cemetery and other ceremonial events. He recently returned from Gettysburg, where he participated in a mission celebrating the 150th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg.

He is the son of Misti Morfrey and Jim Newton of Hoopeston and is married to Aubrey (Trosper) Newton, of Rossville.
